Calling generations of all nations to the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ.

reconnecting with students from the first series of Quake Student Conferences that took place in the Tri-Cities, WA. These students are now involved in a church plant that is reaching their generation in that area, and they were eager to relate to Mike that the genesis of God's call to them and preparing them for this work was at the Quake conferences in 2006-2007!

On May 9th, Mike and I "changed hats" for a day, and he kept the baby while I had the chance to speak at a local women's event. I was so pleased to have my mom, Linda Keller, and my daughters accompany me to the women's Spring Fling at Open Door Baptist Church in Troutdale, Oregon. Jordan and Michaela sang with their choir from Open Door; then I challenged women to A.I.M. for Perfection in their lives through accountability relationships, lives of integrity and maintaining contentment through genuine faith in the Lord. It was such a meaningful part of my Mother's Day weekend!

The following week, June 14-17, we traveled to North Bend, Oregon to lead in revival at the First Baptist Church. Mike and I led worship each night, and he preached on the "Theology of the Love of the Cross" and "Undivided Devotion" to God. Pastor J.L. Coffey commented, "Your messages were very Biblical and relevant for. . . the church today. . . . Our people responded very well, and the effects on their lives are evident." During the services, there was a marked brokenness in the members. One woman shared with me that "many seeds had been planted" during our week
